THE THEATRE

The veteran GREENE has given us notice that be will open the Adelphi, on next Monday night, with a complete and decidedly talented company. Mr. GREEKE has made extra exertions to secure a good company this time, and we are satisfied that he has ces. Nashville we say it not to her credit be it known, has not exhibited her native liberality and judgment in the patronage of those men who are, in truth, as Hamlet says, "the abstract and brief chronicles of the time." Indeed, the best actors have too often played here before empty boxes, while the circus and concert rooms were filled to overflowing. Under such circumstances, it has been no easy task to procure a good company for this market, but we are informed that Mr. GREENE has succeeded very well. Besides those with whom be has made regular contracts, he has entered into engagements with most of the available "Stars" in a brilliant succession of them. We do hope that our citizens will properly appreciate the importance of properly sustaining the drama in its purity. It is one of the most instructive, innocent, and agreeble amusements which the genius of man has ever invented. Wherever it is sound state of public morals, and refined and chivalrous manners. Shakespeare has anothematized the man "who has no music in his soul," Had we Shakespeare's genius, we would condemn in stronger terms the man who has in his heart no love or appreciation of the drams.

FROM CHARLESTON TO NEW YORK. We refer the traveling public to the advertisement of HENRY MISSROOM, in to-day's paper, Mr. M. is the Agent of the splendid Steamship line from Charleston to New York. The steamers composing this line are unsurpassed for speed, accommodations, and safety. They are under the command of the most experienced seamen, and every effort is made to render their trips pleasant and safe. Travelers will find this one of the most expeditious routes to New York. For further particulars, we refer to the advertisement. We learn that early in November, the new steamship "Nasa-VILLE" will be placed on this line, in addition to the present steamers.

FASCINATING,-The following, which we find in the New York Day Book, shows that the use of "tidies" may, as well as other fashionable habits, be made extremely ridiculous:

BLACK AND WHITE WOOL .- We saw a fat negro wench at the theatre the other night with her own black wool surmounted by one of the gaudiest and most elaborately be-bobbed white woolen tidies we ever saw. We think this must put a stop to this most absurd and ridiculous fashion.

6 A whig editor undertakes to account for the failure of President Pierce to meet the just expectations of the country. Men usually wait for an event before they undertake to account for it; but this fellow means to be in time. He gives the account, and if the failure happens, all right. If it doesn't happen, the account will do for another occasion; for it will suit almost any event with very little modification.—Low. Democrat.

A BROAD HINT,-"Doctor," said a waggish parishioner of good old Parson F--- to him one day, "I think that I must have a pew nearer the desk than where I now sit." "Why," said the parson. "can't you hear well where you are?" "O yes," was the reply, "but that ain't it. The fact is, there are so many people between me and the pulpit, that by the time what you say gets back to where I am, it is as flat as dish-water.

His face grows haggard with its intense suffering. His eyes revolve in their orbits gagements with most of the available "Stars" in the country, and we may expect during the season his features in a moment, as if dashed there by a coarse brash dipped in gall. Sharp pangs tremble n his marrow. His blood throbs like lightning, as hot and quick in every bursting vein, and then a whirlwind of the wildest delirium wraps his soul in dreams of fire. EXTRACT FROM A "PRIZE TALE.—Beautifully gorgeous was the sunset sky, the last notes of the summer birds fell upon the ear as they retired to their resting places in the green forest, and every thing whispered of love, as I stood with my love in a beautiful garden, regaled by the odors of a thous-and flowers. Gently I drew my arm around her delicate waste, and was about to imprint a kiss upon her lips, when she looked at me saucily in the eyes, and with a smile upon her countenance, said "Don't," and I "donted."

VALUABLE IRON PROPERTY AND FARM FOR SALE. THE subscriber would call the affection of those who wish to embark in the Iron business, also those who I wish to emburk in the Iron business, also those who wish to own a lumisome and facille farm, to the following property which he offers for sale:

1st. Jackson Formace and lands, our about 2500 acres.—
This furnice is on Beaver Dum Creek, Dickson county, Tennessee, and the stack is the largest in the State, being 47 feet high. The furnice, except the stack, is now being rebuilt, and will be roady to put in blast by the list of November. The result of the North Western Kallroad, as surveyed, passes immediately by the Furnace. The cre is unsurrusyand, and the fluiber and ground admirably adapted surpressed, and the timber and groung admirably adapted including the Dickson ore bank. This Farnace is on Jones Creek, about three miles South of Charlotte. There is a good water power, and also good farming lands attached good water power, and also good farming lands attached to this property.

Also, the Valley Forgeon Jones' Creek, and about 37, or acres of land. The fall is as feet, and the head of water immense. There are some very five farming lands in this tract, and it is also settler a most desirable location.

Also, the Mill Greek property and Book River ore bank in Hickman county, Tennessee. The Mill Greek sites, of which there are two or sax, present the best water powers for the size of the sites on that can be found in any country. The Duck River ore bank is the heaviest deposite of ore in the State, and the ore can be procured with less labor than at any bank in the country. It is within balf a mile of Duck River, and the lands around are covered with the best coaling finisher.

I hest coaling limiter.

Also, the Lower Tonnel, at the Narrows of Harpeth, in Davidson county, Tennessee, with ten acres of land for buildings and machinery. It is unnecessary to speak of the water power at the Narrows of Harpeth. It is known to every one, and twenty-five years of experience makies the subscriber to speak with certainty of its great benefits and usefulness. It is, indeed, only to be seen to be appreciated. Instly, my Williamson Farm, on which I now reside, and its quality is the have produced on it this year, which all who have seen it, pronounce it the lest they have ever seen. It is altogether one of the most desirable farms for heavity and profit that is in the Fouth-west. It contains about 560

The above property is offered for sale, not for the purpose of profit or speculation, but simply from the fact that the subscriber's bestilt, makes it necessary to relieve himself of the care, necessarily incident to so much real property leated at different points, and renders him unable to give it that personal attention which it requires.

Any one wishing to purchase any of the above property will please call on the subscriber at his residence, or address him at Good Spring P. O., Williamson rounty, Tanneesee, ang il -im M. BELL.
